

Dear Princess,

We hope that you had a magical and memorable experience today at Cinderella's Closet. We wish you all the best as you become the Belle of the Ball in the dress of your dreams. Please leave with the knowledge that you are loved today and always. The Fairy Godmothers here today and many others you did not see, gave their time, energy and resources for you alone. They volunteered because they believe you are special and unique. Please walk with confidence in your life and know that you are cherished.

Below are Beauty Tips from Audrey Hepburn. May these words become truth for you as you mature into a beautiful woman.

God bless you,

Cinderella's Closet

A Ministry of Immanuel United Methodist Church

Beauty Tips

For attractive lips, speak words of kindness.

For lovely eyes, seek out the good in people.

For poise, walk with the knowledge you'll never walk alone.

People, even more than things, have to be restored, renewed, revived, reclaimed, and redeemed; Never throw out anybody.

Remember, if you ever need a helping hand, you'll find one at the end of your arm. As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands, one for helping yourself, the other for helping others.

The beauty of a woman is not in the clothes she wears,
The figure that she carries, or the way she combs her hair.

The beauty of a woman must be seen from in her eyes,
Because that is the doorway to her heart, the place where love resides.

The beauty of a woman is not in a facial mole,
But true beauty in a woman is reflected in her soul.
It is the caring that she lovingly gives, the passion that she shows,
And the beauty of a woman with passing years-only grows!